Introduction to The Gibbs Genealogy by Ruth Marion Gibbs Wiley

The Gibbs Genealogy is truly a monument to the life and work of Clarence Dale Silvernail (1880-1943), son of Mary Ella Dales Silvernail (who had a great talent for genealogy) and John P. Silvernail. He was also my first-cousin-once-removed, and was a gifted genealogist. Words can never do justice to his work which was outstanding.

During the great depression years of 1929-1930's he specialized on the Silvernail Genealogy. After marriage to my first cousin, Stella Olivia Gibbs, (1884-1966) he became interested in the Gibbs family tree. Eventually this led him to begin his great work of unearthing all possible information about our first known ancestor, Giles Gibbs (a descendant of the ancient Gibbs family which came to England from Normandy with William the Conqueror in the 11th century), who migrated to America from Devonshire, England in 1629 aboard the ship "Abigail." He had five children, Gregory, Jacob, Samuel, Benjamin and Sarah.

It is not known when Clarence began this work, it is thought it might have been in the mid-1930's. He searched out the five lines as far as possible until the time of his death, Dec. 26, 1943 at the home of his brother, Frank Gibbs Silvernail, Crestwood, N.Y., who is also an eminent genealogist. (Short sketch of his life on

Each and every phase of the work was most carefully planned, outlined and carried out. Hundreds of notes, and pages and pages of tediously filed facts and information, with detailed reports on various items were all most meticulously prepared and used in filling out several hundred family cards or work sheets, the size of typewriter paper, each in his almost microscopical handwriting.

Many long, arduous hours were spent in the vast research work. Most of his time was given to going over records in the New York Historical and Genealogical Library on East 58th Street, N.Y. Other time was given to records in the Public Library at 42nd St. and 5th Ave., New York.

Included among records examined were City and Town clerk records, land records, death records, birth records, marriage and baptismal records; other church and school records; the first Massachusetts census of 1710; the 1860 census of Angler, Courtland County, New York. Many histories of various towns and counties; the Boston 'phone directory' family Bibles and other family records; various other sources were all most carefully checked and double checked for information. Nothing was overlooked that might provide more knowledge on the various branches of Giles Gibbs' descendants.

He delved into old files of the Delhi Gazette, especially those of the years 1856, 1860, 1862, and 1872. The Genealogical Department of the Stamford Mirror-Recorder of August 24, 1939, and that of the Hartford Times, June 7, 1941 were scrutinized for data.

Mrs. Fannie Gibbs supplied much information from her records. Other important material was obtained from "The Montgomery Gibbs Book," the "Sereno Gibbs Book," and from the "A. C. Gibbs Book." much of which Mr. Gibbs had taken from records in the Newberry Library in Chicago.

Other records were obtained from Eugene Bouton, 53 Warren St., Bloomfield, New Jersey in 1940-1941. (For complete list of reference data see the Bibliography,

Stella joined Clarence in the work after the death of her father, Benjamin Alexander Gibbs in the summer of 1940. Numerous long, hard trips were made to many cemetaries, among them the Stevens Cemetary, Harpersfield Cemetary, one near Potter Hill, and a small family plot on the Nichols farm between Jefferson and North Harpersfield, to copy off names, dates and relationships of the various branches of the family. All these had to be checked and compared with other records.

Much help was gained by correspondence with relatives, old family friends, neighbors and others, even strangers, most of whom gladly contributed items from their own records, which greatly aided in establishing names, dates, relationships, places of residence, business connections and other pertinent data.

Stella was indefatigable in the work of correspondence, trips to cemetaries, visits to relatives, friends, and also strangers if it seemed they might have something to help fill in the missing links.

In later years, after the death of Clarence, she suffered ill health and was unable to continue the work. She passed away in Los Angeles, Calif. at a convalescent hospital April 11, 1966 at age 82, was cremated and ashes sent by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ione M. Gibbs, to Clarence's sister, Mrs. Ethel Silvernail Chrisp at Stamford, N.Y. who had them placed in the family cemetary in or near the grave of Clarence.

It is so tragic that both Clarence and Stella passed on before his great work on the Gibbs Genealogy was completed and published.

I had been very much interested in the genealogy ever since first hearing about it from Aunt Libbie Gibbs Palmer in the 1930's, and told more about it in 1940 by Stella when she wrote us for information. She promised that each one desiring a copy would be given the opportunity to obtain one when the work was completed.

My longing to own a copy had increased all those long years from 1930 to 1966. All of the Gibbs Genealogy material was in the keeping of Ione M. Gibbs after the death of Stella, and at my request this was given me on May 12, 1966 that I might try my hand at compiling the vast amount of notes, letters, newsclippings, etc. and large cards or work sheets for each family. Many of these sheets had yet to be filled in from the notes. etc. and that alone was a huge taks. Nothing had yet been written in history or manuscript form. The tenth generation was not yet completed, and information had to be obtained for the 11th and 12th generations to bring the 337 years of Gibbs history down to date from 1629 through 1966.

It was with a sense of the deepest respect and humble gratitude for the privilege of working on the genealogy that I approached the task of gathering more needed information, and compiling all of the material into book form. This has entailed many long but most interesting hours of intense study and concentration in going over all the data thoroughly in order to understand what had been done in the way of research before trying to proceed. Much time and effort were given to preparing questionnaires which were sent to relatives for their convenience in returning information needed, and for the most part this was very successful. I also wrote to the Head Office of the Registrar of births, deaths and marriages, London, England; to the General Register Office, Somerset House, London; to the Public Record House, Chancery Lane, London; to the Society of Genealogists, Harrington Gardens, London, in the effort to learn where Giles Gibbs was born and when; also the name and birth date of his first wife, when and where they were married, and the last name of his second wife, Katherine, also where Giles' son Gregory was born and where baptized. He was born in 1628.

In addition I also wrote the College of Arms, Queen Victoria Street, London in regard to the eligibility, or possibility of a Coat-of-Arms for Giles Gibbs. All this brought a negative result as I was unable to supply the information needed to make a search.

My curiosity regarding the size of the Dorchester Lands granted to Giles Gibbs in 1633 by the English Government, and those granted his oldest son, Gregory Gibbs, at Suffield in 1680 led me to make a little research in hopes I could learn something about it. While I discovered nothing pertaining directly to Giles or Gregory Gibbs, it was learned from 'Pilgrim and Plymouth Colony" by Editors of American Heritage, the Magazine of History, that the English Government in 1621 granted 100 acres each to the Pilgrims at the end of seven years, which was 1628 (the year Gregory was born) and one year before Giles Gibbs came to America, nine years after the arrival of the Pilgrims. It is reasonable to suppose this may have set a precedent for granting lands in that amount to other settlers who came a little later. So perhaps Giles and Gregory Gibbs may each have been granted 100 acres of land.

The Gibbs Genealogy gives a wonderful insight into the lives and work of our ancestors who first settled at Dorchester, Mass. and all along the east coast, later spreading north, south, and to the West coast, and even beyond, to Hawaii in bygone days. They were hardy pioneers of new territory and some lost their lives in the wilds of new country or were killed by Indians.

Some were farmers, millers, surveyors, ferry operators, inn keepers, deacons, ministers, missionaries, doctors, dentists, lawyers, judges, teachers, college professors, soldiers, sailors, marines, merchants, railroad men; radio engineers, and aviators in later generations. One descendant was a conductor of the great choir of the Mormon Church at Salt Lake City, Utah; another became an American and European Prima Donna, two Gibbs girls married Mormons, one of whom was Brigham Young; another married a rice planter and writer from the Argentine Republic in South America, and one married a prominent Italian Professor of Speech.

Many of the Gibbs men fought and died in the French and Indian Wars; others were 'Minute Men' at Lexington, and other battles of the Revolutionary War, the War of 1812, Civil War, World War I, World War II and the Korean conflict. Perhaps some of them are in Vietnam today.

There has been a Benjamin in every generation to the tenth.

My best efforts have been given to carry on and complete the project Clarence Dale Silvernail began so many years ago - work to which he and Stella gave so much of themselves until God took them away.

I knew nothing about genealogical work when beginning my task of compiling the Gibbs Genealogy except for what meager experience came in working out the family tree of my husband on his mother's side back to the days of the 'Minute Men' at Lexington from family records, other documents including papers from the D.A.R. and letters from Government offices relating to soldiers' pensions, etc.

The only genealogy I've ever seen is the Dales Genealogy compiled by Burr Dales and Ethel Silvernail Chrisp.

Now that my work is finished after seventeen months of intense labor (interrupted at times by remodeling work on our house which necessitated shifting cooking, sleeping and living quarters from room to room, and helping paint woodwork, window frames, etc.) I realize that a much better job could have been done had I gone to a library and read books on genealogy and looked over genealogies others have compiled. But at the time I started on the work that did not occur to me. I just saw all that material to work on, and with so much interest in it and such a deep longing to have the work completed, started in and compiled it to the best of my ability.

Due to inexperience in such work, undoubtedly many mistakes have been made, which it is hoped others may overlook, inasmuch as I have tried very hard to check carefully to insure against too many glaring blunders.

The eleventh and twelfth generations are still in a state of formation, and for this reason some pages in certain sections have been arranged with blank spaces to be filled in later by those who may carry on the genealogy. In this fast space age it may save time and patience, and perhaps a few difficulties in following each lineal descent in proper sequence. Also at the top of each paragraph about an ancestor, above his name the lineal descent is indicated by numbers with names which stand for each generation, so that one may see at a glance his line of descent.

In past generations a disparity in ages of ancestors in each generation is not apparent because we are looking back into the past, but in the last two generations this difference is very noticeable because of the present tense and the generations as yet incomplete.

I thought the addition of maps and pen and ink sketches would make the genealogy more interesting, would "bring it alive" by illustrating certain incidents in the lives of our forefathers, and descendants of today. The maps indicate the migrations to other states, and the many localities where the various families settled to build up farms, cities and towns. Sketches show the progress in transportation from pack train to the super-jets and space craft of today.

I'm indeed grateful for the privilege of compiling the Gibbs Genealogy from the material left by Clarence and Stella, and what has since been obtained by correspondence and questionnaires to all known relatives of our branch of the descendants of Giles Gibbs. In this I have been very greatly aided by others, and express my deepest gratitude to all those who have so generously given of their time and effort.

First, I thank my husband, John, for his interest, his encouragement when I was laboring under some knotty problem; for his ever readiness to spare my time to work on the book by answering the telephone, taking care of the dog, by often making a special trip to town for more paper, typewriter ribbons or other material, or by doing the marketing; for his forbearance when meals were some times late or rather 'sketchy' because I was so deeply engrossed in the work as to be oblivious of time.

My sincerest appreciation to Ione M. Gibbs for her encouragement and aid in writing to relatives for information for the 11th and 12th generations, and that given about her own family.

Words can never express my gratitude to first cousin Dorothy Rathbun Wear who sent data from her "Ancestors Book" which her sister, Mary Rathbun had made for her, for all the letters she wrote to relatives and for facts about her own family.

First cousin Nora Rathbun Brown deserves much credit for her aid in gathering information about her grandchildren which was a great help to her sister Dorothy in her enormous task.

Horace Dale Palmer, Sr., first cousin, has been most helpful in clearing up a problem in the ninth generation, for supplying facts from his records, information about his own family and offer of aid in any way possible which has all been more than appreciated.

Many thanks to Martin and Edna Lange for their cooperation and very prompt reply. Elizabeth Dale Collier Lange Bacon is to be commended for the very thorough and comprehensive report about her family, and cooperation in offering to be of help in any way possible.

The complete and well arranged material received from William Traynor Gibbs' wife Alta, is more than appreciated, especially as it was all typed, for which I thank their daughter, Dorothy Mae Gibbs.

My heartfelt thanks to Ethel Silvernail Chrisp, my first-cousin-once-removed, for information about the life of her brother Clarence Dale Silvernail and several very helpful facts about a few ancestors; also a perplexing question explained about the term 'cousins,' especially second cousins, and cousins-once-removed. (The word 'cousin' takes in a lot of territory, of which I was unaware.) And I appreciate her thoughtfulness in sending me a copy of the Dales Genealogy (which is made up for the most part from the records gathered over a life-time by her mother, Mary Ella Dales Silvernail), with some material obtained by herself and her brother Frank Gibbs Silvernail, with other items provided by Burr M. Dales.

I am beholden to Frank Gibbs Silvernail, my other first-cousin-once-removed, for the interesting thumb-nail report on the life and work of his brother Clarence, and for a correction he made on an item of importance concerning the work of Clarence. In comparison with the work of Clarence, and of Frank who is an eminent genealogist, and who at one time toom their family genealogy back 72 lines, to the first ancestor in each case - my efforts to compile this genealogy fade into insignificance.

Thanks to nephew Irving Lovett Tallman for a complete report of his family, and interesting items about his father, Zack DeWitt Tallman.

Great appreciation is extended to Elsie, wife of nephew Harrison Blinn Tallman, for the very good account of their family and other things she had done to aid in this work.

To my niece, Joan Lorraine Gibbs Sorenson, I am truly grateful for the excellent family data, and that of her husband's ancestors.

Much needed facts were also contributed by niece Linda Louise Gibbs Stevens about her family for which I render thanks.

And last but far from least, I acknowledge the aid received from my sister-inlaw, Violet Lorraine Fields Gibbs who gave family history, facts about her ancestors, and for outstanding material concerning the life and work of my first cousin, Martin Franklin Palmer.

Without the help of all these interested people the last two generations, and part of the tenth could never have been completed.

May future generations carry on from here!

Whittier, California October 31, 1967

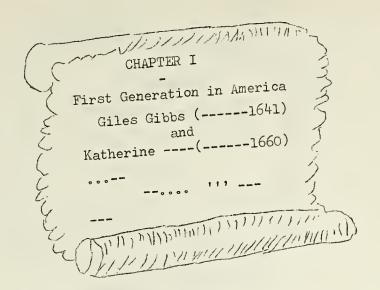

Cloth costume of gray, brown or black. Falling band & cuffs of lawn with lace points. Doublet of muted colors, long silk lapels, felt hat with ribbon band, knitted hose, leather shoes with shoeroses. I64I.

Young woman spinning. Woolen cloth bodice, peplum and skirt. Muslin blouse and apron, sheer lawn Dutch coif. Chatelaine holding scissors, sewing and spinning tools.

Probably Giles Gibbs and his wife Katherine wore these costumes, or very similiar ones. The settlers brought their clothes, tools and preasures when they came to America. The men hunted and fished for a living, did carpenter work, farming, etc. The women cooked, cleaned, made seap, candles and many other things, in addition to knitting, weaving, sewing, producing all the clothing worn by the family. The men learned to dress skins for outdoor clothing and shoes. Both men and women carved wooden dishes and utensils. They made their own furniture, and in time learned to grow flax, hemp, silk cotton and wool, from which clothing and household linens were made. In those days simple, well made clothes of hand woven fabrics lasted a long time due to good-wearing quality and because fashions did not change very often. A style sometimes lasted a century, and many fine garments, hats, lace, etc. was handed down, often by means of a Will. Best clothes were worn for Church, and special occasions, and at all other times plain and serviceable clothing was worn. Every day dress did follow the style of the period, but in a much simpler version. The above styles were worn from 1641 or before until about 1660 and 1670.

Giles Gibbs, our earliest known ancestor, was a descendent of the ancient Gibbs family which came to England in the 11th century with William the Conqueror, from Normandy 900 years ago.

They had come with Duke William to help him gain the English throne after the death of the King, Edward the Confessor, who had named Duke William as his heir to the throne and which Harold of Wessex had usurped. Duke William and his force of 5000 troops met King Harold with his 6000 men in the heavily fought Battle of Hastings Oct. 14, 1066. Harold lost his life and William conquered all England.

To pay off his army, William the Conqueror gave them English lands. The various branches of the Gibbs family spread out and settled in the counties of Devonshire, Kent, Warwickshire, and Somerset.

563 years later Giles Gibbs came to America from Devonshire, England on the ship "Abigail" with year old Gregory and his second wife Katherine, in 1629. In 1631 he settled in the Massachusetts Bay Colony at Dorchester. There he was a freeman (one possessed of certain franchises or municipal privileges). He was elected Selectmen on March 4, 1633. (A Selectman was one of a board of town officials concerned with its management, the enforcement of local laws, care of the poor, etc. They are still elected annually in New England.)

He was a Grantee of Dorchester Lands in 1633. He moved to Windsor, Connecticut in 1634, where he died May 21, 1641. His will was dated May 18th, three days before his death. He named his children, all minors as Gregory, Jacob, Samuel,

Benjamin and Sarah. His wife Katherine died October 24, 1660. *

*Footnote: It was thought Giles Gibbs had several brothers: Mathew, Thomas, Samuel, Frank and Joseph. The two latter were early settlers.

Francis Gibbs was a boy on the 'Sea Flower' and was in Windsor in 1670. Edward Gibbs, also John Gibbs, came from England in the "True Love" in 1653.

Benjamin, 6-Cyrenus, 5-Caleb, 4-Benjamin, 3-Samuel, 2-Giles, 1 Benjamin Franklin Gibbs, Jr. (519);

Born January 13, 1827 at Harpersfield, N.Y. Died April 2, 1913 at Highland Park, Michigan in the home of his daughter, Mrs. O.I. Palmer. Buried at Mason City, Iowa. Married *Susan Olivia Dales June 12, 1849 at Harpersfield. She was born January 12, 1832 at Harpersfield and died January 9, 1899 at Mason City, Iowa and buried there. She was daughter of Alexander Dales and first wife, Lydia Ann. Lockweed Dales.

He was a farmer and miller at Harpersfield until 1862 when they moved to Fox Lake, Wisconsin where he farmed five years. They went to Charles City, Louisianna in 1867 for a short time, and then to Mason City, La. where he bought a farm and lived for over 30 years until the death of his wife. He was a very devout Methodist. One of his grandchildren, Mary Eugenia Rathbun, wrote a poem covering ten decades of his life in honor of his 80th birthday in 1907. It is too long to include here and has been placed on page. 112.

Issue of this marriage:

(692) Horace Lockwood; born December 18, 1850. Married Martha Elnora Patten.

(693) Eugene Dales; born April 6, 1852. First wife, Martha 'Mattie' Jane Quick. Second wife, Marion Avery.

(694) Benjamin Alexander; born February 12, 1857. Married Harriet (Hattie) Adeline Mellen.

(695) Hattie Eliza; born December 1, 1862. Married Charles Wilbur Rathbun.

(696) Elizabeth; born June 8, 1872. Married Orren Leander Palmer. Footnote: * Susan Olivia Dales Gibbs was a fifth generation descendent by direct male line of John William Dale who came to America with two brothers in 1710 from Ireland, probably sailing from the Irish port of Warrenport. (Their father had gone with a group of 25,000 men from Scotland to Ireland to fight against James II for William III of England, at the Battle of the Boyne in 1690. They joined a group of 10,000 men already encamped at Loughbrickland, County Down. After James II was defeated he settled in Brickland where descendents of another of his sons were living in 1913.) Susan Olivia Dales' father was gate keeper at the Harpersfield toll gate from 1845-1855, and was called back for a short time in 1860. The toll gate was located on property now owned by N. J. Buck. Mrs. Ann Augusta Lakin of Bennington, N.Y. wrote to Miles C. Dales May 3, 1913: "the name was originally Dale, the 'S' being added after coming to America." No one knows when the S was added. Most families use Dales. (Taken from the Dales Genealogy 1690-1960, compiled by Burr M. Dales and Ethel Silvernail Chrisp.)

Eugene Dales Gibb., Sr., called "Gene" (693);

Born April 6, 1852 at Stamford, New York, four miles from Harpersfield. Died December 13, 1903 at Ft. Dodge, Iowa. Buried at Mason City, Iowa. Changed his middle name to Dale. Was a devout Methodist, and very active in church work. Played the organ for recreation. Was conductor on passenger train of the Chicago Great Western Railway for 25 years. (His brother Benjamin Alexander Gibbs was the engineer on his train.) Married Martha Jane Quick, called "Mattie," April 4, 1875 at Mason City. She was daughter of James Quick and Mary Ann Reed Quick of Clear Lake, Iowa. She died May 27, 1879 at Mason City where they resided. Buried at Clear Lake, Iowa. Their issue:

(804) Mattie Mary Olivia; born July 28, 1878. Married Jack DeWitt Tallman. He married *Marion Avery (called 'Mamie') of El Dora, Iowa, September 5, 1885 at Marshalltown, Iowa, where he lived. Rev. J. B. Casebeer officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Breckel were witnesses.

She was born in a covered wagon in Illinois May 26, 1867, a daughter of **Samuel Avery and his first, Marion E. Frost Avery. They were returning from a visit to relatives in Canada and had to stop for the baby to be born. A squaw from a nearby Indian encampment was called to help the family. After her mother died she grew up in a Baptist family, but she had been born a Catholic. She played the organ, did painting on fabric in early life, and was adept at many kinds of fancy needlework. Was a member of the Baptist Church until 1920 when she joined the Seventh Day Adventist Church in Delta, Colorado. She remained an Adventist until her death January 17, 1943 at Norwalk, California. Buried in Inglewood Park Cemetery in Inglewood, California. They resided in Mason City and Ft. Dodge, Iowa. Their issue:

- (805) Male infant, TWIN; born September 30, 1893 at Mason City. Lived 12 hours. Was named Eugene, but family Doctor A. T. Huxley recorded the birth only as a male infant.

- (807) Female onfant, still-born November 6, 1895 at Mason City. (To have been named Milrie or Milrea.)
- (808) Ruth Marion; born July 21, 1897 at Mason City. Named 'Ruth' by Grandfather Benjamin Franklin Gibbs, Jr. Married John C. Wiley.
- (809) Eugene Dale; born February 20, 1900 at Mason City. Married Violet Lorraine Fields.

Footnote: *Marion Avery at birth was named Julia Ann Jemima Avery, but so disliked the name she adopted her mother's name of 'Marion'. In later life she used the name Julia Marion, but was known most of her life by the nickname 'Mamie.' She married Ralph Hayward Willis September 13, 1906 at Mason City, Iowa, with her children, nine year old Ruth, and six year old Dale present.

He was born November 11, 1875 in La Crosse, Wisconsin and was a freight brakeman on the Chicago Great Western Railway. They resided in Mahnomen and Hawley, Minn., also Bloomington, Nebraska. Leter they went farming near Haigler, Nebraska, and in 1911 he filed on a homestead six miles north of Wray, Colorado. Rented the homestead and eventually sold it. Moved to Silver City, New Mexico and operated a Confectionary store, later moved the business to Deming, New Mexico. After W.W. I returned to Colorado, living in Brush, and later on a farm 20 miles from Delta owned by the daughter. She disposed of it and the family moved to Delta, Colorado, and later to Brighton, Colorado where they were divorced in 1925. No children of this marraige. Court granted permission to drop the name of Willis and resume the name of Gibbs.

She moved to Los Angeles, California with her daughter in October 1925.

Footnote: **Samuel Avery was born in 1826 and died in 1910 on his farm at Huntley, Nebraska. He was buried as a Civil War Veteran in Huntley. He served as a sharp-shooter in the 34th Illinois Volunteer Infantry. Was a member of the G.A.R. He owned a farm near Wilcox, Nebraska many years before moving to the smaller farm near Huntley. Married Rachel Dunbur in 1890.

His ancestors came from France to Canada and were hunters and trappers for the fur companies there. Later many of them migrated to the United States. Married his first wife, Marion E. Frost, February 19, 1863. She was born in 1846 and died in 1876 when the last child was a baby.

Her ancestors came to Canada from Hollan, and from there to the United States. Afte her death the children were all scattered among relatives and friends. Their father spent many years trying to located all of them again.

Cremated, ashes placed in grave of son Frank at Council Bluffs, Iowa. He was a locomotive engineer on the Chicago Great Western Railway for over 50 years. (His brother Eugene Dale Gibbs was conductor on his train for many years before his death in 1903.) He was a member of the St. John's Episcopal Church and the Elks Lodge in Council Bluffs.

He married *Harriet Adeline Mellen (called Hattie) December 25, 1881 at Mason City, Iowa. The Minister was H.C. Church, and the witnesses were

Julia Ann Jemima Avery(laterkknown as Marion Avery, and Julia Marion Avery) was born in a covered wagon in Illinois, May 26-1867, as her parents, Samuel Avery and his first wife, Marion E. Frost Avery, with their two sons, William Walter, age 3 years, and Henry E., age & years, wdre returning from a visit to relatives in Canada, A squaw from a nearby Indian encampment was called to assist the mother and new baby, who was the third of seven children.

She was born August 14, 1863 at Hermon, St. Lawrence County, New York. (Was daughter of Edwin Mellen and Stalla Ann Farnsworth Mellen. Her ancestry on her mother's side goes back to the first known ancestor, Jonathan Haskins and his first wife, Lucretia Pratt Haskins, in the 1700's.) 1700's.) She died July 24, 1922 at Council Bluffs, Iowa. She was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Council Bluffs, and was a member of the house committee of the Creche, one of the most faithful workers. She was also a member of the Oakland Avenue Chapter of St. Paul's Guild.

The funeral was held from the chapel of King's Undertaking Parlors at 9:30 A.M., and at St. Paul's Episcopal Church at 10:00 A.M. with Rev. Wilford Ernest Mann officiating. Music was by the Church Choir. The Oakland Avenue Chapter of St. Paul's Guild attended in a body. Pall bearers were: F.A. Winslow; E.G. Nichols; Dr. Scott Coval; H.W. Clark; Dr. J.F. Minear, and Dr. S.W. McCall.

The body was taken to Forest Lawn Cemetery, Omaha, Nebraska for cremation. The ashes were later interred in the grave of her son, Dr. Benjamin Franklin Gibbs (who died June 19, 1928) in the cemetery at Council Bluffs. Among the many floral offerings were those of the Council Bluffs Dental Society; the order of R.R. Conductors, and St. Paul's Guild. Among the mourners were Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Campbell, Mrs. Cole, and Mrs. N.P. Mills all of Ft. Dodge, Iowa; also W. Emory and J.E. Taylor, of Clarion, Iowa.

The large unit of the new pipe organ was installed in St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Council Bluffs, Iowa, as a Memorial to her in August 1924.

They resided in Marshalltown and Ft. Dodge, Iowa, and later moved to Council Bluffs, Iowa where they lived the last eighteen years of her life. Issue of this marriage:

- Benjamin Franklin, born July 25, 1888. Married Ione Moore Lindsley. Helen; born August 3, 1890. First husband was Charles Franklin Collier; (813)second husband, Martin Charles Lange.

Footnote: The first known ancestor of *Harriet Adeline Mellen Gibbs (called Hattie), on the side of her mother, Stella Ann Farnsworth Mellen, was Jonathon Haskins and his first wife, Lucretia Pratt Haskins.

A note book written by Stella Ann Farnsworth Mellen, a letter by O.H. Farnsworth to his sister Ann giving data on ancestors; a letter from Ruthie to her Aunt Ann (probably Ann Farnsworth) with data about ancestors, notes, obituaries, newsclippings, etc., pertaining to ancestors descending from Jonathon Haskins and his first wife, Lucretia Pratt, and his second wife, Susan White, were found among the effects of Stella Olivia Gibbs Silvernail who died in 1966. This material was sent to me by Mrs. Ione M. Gibbs in September 1967.

From this data and excerpts from the Gibbs Genealogy, I have compiled "The Descendants of Jonathon Haskins from mid-1700's through 1966."

Among the living descendants of Jonathon Haskins and Lucretia Pratt Haskins are: Lowell Franklin Gibbs, Marjorie Adair Gibbs Bain, Janice Helen Collier, Elizabeth Dale Collier Lange Bacon, Martha Elaine Bacon, Dennis Lowell Bacon, Leslie Ann Bacon, and Judy Lee Bacon. Ruth Marion Gibbs Wiley

Warion Gibbs, her Mother and Chihuahua dog, moved from Brighton, Colo. to Los Angeles in 5. She drove her I921 Model T' Ford Touring car all the way, via Ariz., N. Mex., a three ip, seeing Grand Canyon, Painted Desert, etc. Tourist camps were few and far between, also gas stations. Side curtains were used to protect back of car where two suit cases, a tarp, food box, wood, etc. were stowed. Also carried a bed roll, tool box, pick, shovel, crow bar, axe, spare tire and inner tubes, extra oil, water and gas. Very unhandy to take up front floor boardss whenever the clutch, reverse and foot brake had to be tightened, as there were only three doors on those cars, and none on the driver's side. Roads mostly gravel or dirt except near cities. A corduroy road across the Mohave desert. It was a very rugged trip. (922) Dorothy Mae, TWIN; born September 11, 1925 in Berkeley.

He married Mabel Oberg July 2, 1909. No issue of either marriage. He graduated University of Rochester, B.A. Degree, in 1902. Attended 25th reunion in 1927. Was chief freight clerk, New York Office, of Santa Fe Railroad. Beginning just previous to W.W.I was salesman for Provident Life and Trust Insurance Co. (now Provident Mutual) the remainder of his life. Was one of 10 top salesmen at one time. Unable to enlist in W.W.I because of crippled feet, he went overseas for Y.M.C.A. in charge of all freight shipments to their 'Y' canteens in Europe. Set up warehouse facilities in all French ports. Went to Bordeaux in 1919 to see brother Frank, with his Infantry outfit, was waiting sailing orders from France to U.S.A. for demobilization. He was a gifted genealogist. Specialized on the Silvernail Genealogy during the depression years of 1929-1930's. Began his great work on the Gibbs Genealogy in the early 1930's, exact date unknown. Was still working on it at time of death. Stella assisted in the work after the death of her father in 1940, but she was unable to carry it on from where Clarence left off. It was in her possession at time of her death.

The U.S.Government designed, developed and put into war time use many strange and marvelous air craft during World War II and the Korean War. Since then, during the beginning of the IIth. and I2th. generations of the desendents of Giles Gibbs (4-1641) our country has made many huge air liners of all kinds, including supersonic and jet planes to carry passengers, mail and freight of all kinds. Many versions of the helicopter are in every day civilian use, as well as for war, -these and many kinds of bombers, including jet bombers are now in use in the war in Vietnam.

The IIth.& I2th.generations will see | many mor astounding things come to pass in the space age, which will leave far behing the miracles the U.S.Government has accomplished in launching missiles and satellites into space to orbit around the earth and the magniferation had been accomplished in the magniferation. the mappisending back messages by radio under remote control. Our astronaut's have been launched into space to orbit the earth many times/before returning, and none have so far been lost or destroyed in space. The two accidents to our astronaut teams happened at the base before take-off. Plans are underway to land men on the moon, and bring them pack again.

TWELFTH GENERATION

(Note: The 12th generation descendents of Giles Gibbs is like the 11th generation, still in formation. There is a wide difference in ages in these two last generations which is very noticeable because of being in the present. Earlier generations had come and gone before the Gibbs Genealogy was compiled, so difference of ages in them is not apparent as in these two last generations which bring the genealogy down to date from 1629. Space has been left in many places to write in later information which will then make the genealogy complete in a few more years, and thus be easier for posterity to carry on from there. (Ruth M. Gibbs Wiley)

(2) Benjamin Gibbs;

Birth date unknown. Died in 1676. Married Lydia Scattow, daughter of Joshua Scattow. Was at Boston in 1662. Was a Freeman in 1666. Conveyed to his father-in-law by Bill of Sale in 1670, three negroes and one young Indian squaw, Peggy. Served on the Connecticut River as Captain of Volunteer Troop in King Philip's War (Indian name was Metacom) in 1676 and died soon after. (Recorded in Mass. Bay New England Records for 1674-1686, Vol. V, pages 75-76, 1675-6 Feb. 25, Court granted Commissions to Captaincy and gifts of house and boat, - 'Whereas, Capt. Benjamin Gibbs is Commissioner for the service of the country as Commander of a Troop of Volunteers. It is ordered by this Court, that he and his troops shall be quartered at the charge of the country in the several towns in this jurisdiction, 'etc.") (The widow of Benjamin Gibbs married Anthony Checkly, Attorney-General in 1678. Her third husband was a friend of her first husband, William Colman, son of Rev. Benjamin Colman of the Brattle Square Church. They were married March 6, 1712.) Issue of Benjamin Gibbs and Lydia Scattow Gibbs were:

(3)

Benjamin; born May 22, 1665. Died young. Lydia; born January 26, 1670. Married Hugh Hall. (4)

Born July 29, 1674. (May have been the Benjamin Gibbs of Sandwich, Mass. who married Anne Tupper March 2, 1698-9. She was daughter of Thomas and Martha Mayhew Tupper. He may have had a first wife, Anne Warren, married in 1698.)

Footnote: The data of Benjamin Gibbs of Sandwich, Mass. was in Genealogical Dept. of Hartford Times, I.H.P. (8486) March 15, 1941. We have no further records of Benjamin Gibbs(2), or the succeeding generations of his line.

Costumes worn by Seventeenth Century English Colonists.

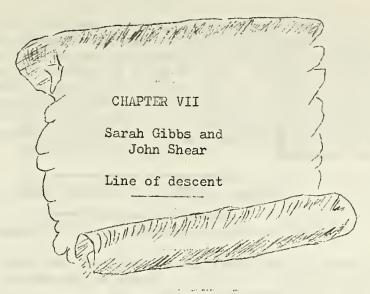

elvet or cloth over ribbed silk, acings over stomacher, white awn under bodice and collar, lack hood. Second half of 17th. entury, 1650 to 1699. (They wore lain homemade versions for very day, and kept the finer ostumes for ceremonial wear, -to hurch, weddings, parties, etc.) ost of these costumes had been rought from England by the Colnists, or inherited down through he years, -often by Will. Styles id not change for many years at his time, due to lack of transortation or communication among he colonies or European countries.

Cloth cassock and cape, pockets, buttons and button holes, white linen shirt, falling band, beaver hat with ribbons, leather shoes, ribbon bowknots. Worn in second half of I7th. century. Worn dr brought from England by the Colonists. They wore homespun versions for every day. (English in Virginia, Delaware, and the Carolinas ordered dress and finery from England right up to the Revolution.)

Clothing like this was probably worn by Sarah Gibbs Shear nd her husband, John Shear, from I66I to I689, and possibly before that.
Their son, John Shear, Jr. and his wife, Alice Mitchelson Shear, robably wore the same style, as well as their son, Thomas Shear, although homas may have worn a I700 style.

Born November 28, 1691 at Sudbury. No record of marriage or issue. No other information of succeeding generations of this line.

FINIS

A 60 year old news clipping, very tattered and torn, of a poem written in honor of the 80th birthday of Grandfather Benjamin Franklin Gibbs, by his grand-daughter Mary Eugenia Rathburn in 1907 when she was 24 years of age and had been teaching school for six years, came to me in September 1967 while I was still compiling the Gibbs Genealogy. It was sent to me by Ione M. Gibbs, and had been found during the settlement of the estate of Stella Gibbs Silvernail. I thought it an interesting addition to the genealogy. The clipping is so old and fragile that the remaining portion of the headline crumbled to dust at a touch, and the name of the newspaper is not included. Ruth Marion Gibbs Wiley.

BIRTHDAY of BENJAMIN FRANKLIN GIBBS

One of Adrian's Remarkable Old Gentlemen

Benjamin Franklin Gibbs, born in Harpersfield, New York, January 13, 1827, quietly celebrated his 80th birthday on Sunday at the home of his daughter Mrs. O.L. Palmer, with a few near friends as guests.

Mr. Gibbs is as well and hearty as any man of his age in the country, and every day is full of business.

The following poem written by one of his grandchildren, gives a little sketch of his life, which has been spent in New York, Wisconsin, for many years in Iowa, an for the past eight years, since the breaking up of his home in Iowa, in Adrian.

1827-1907 Picture of eight decades

I see him now, the blue-eyed little boy,
Who plays at Mother's side in childish glee.
The barefoot toes, the homespun little shirt,
The shock of yellow hair pushed carelessly.

10-20

And then, an awkward, growing lad, he comes, Strong, honest, hearty and blushing at the girls, Learning, perhaps, the sweetness of first love In mild-faced maid, with smiles and sunny curls.

20-30.

In this, a little home, with hearth fire bright,
And mother, young and pretty rests my eye.
And father, gay and youthful, takes his babes,
Upon his shoulders, to be tossed on high.

30-40

For bread and butter late and long he toils, For Hattie, Horace, Gene and baby Ben.

-40-50

A fair-haired girlie clings now to his hand, Welcomed and loved as all had been before; While Gene and Horace grown to man's estate With charming brides ask "Pa" to welcome more.

50-60

Across his doorsteps to some new homes go His daughter, Hattie, and his last boy, Ben. And father, smiling through his tear-dimmed eye, Blesses his children and blesses them again.

60-70

A happy man, he sits around the fire, With his dear wife, at closing of the day, S And talks of that grandchild and this dear son, And of the girl at college, far away. 70-80

The blight of sorrow touches his gray years, I see him gazing at the vacant chair.

And then above, with unfaltering trust, he looks, And smiles to see his loved ones waiting there.

Now...

His days pass on in peace and pleasantness, With quiet joy he works among his bees. Tends to his garden, does his little chores, And thanks God at eve on bended knee.

And so, today, when four square ripened years Are crowned with goodness and a life well spent, His children and his children's children, too, Wish him these wishes and more, not sent,

> Plenty of happiness, Twenty of years, More of joy, Less of tears.

July 14, 1940.

Mrs. Clarence D. Silvernail Silverdale Cottage Stamford, New York

Dear Mrs. Silvernail:

I am very glad to hear from you and that you are at the source of the Gibbs information. I have copied a record of the descendents of Caleb Gibbs who came from Litchfield, Conn. to Harpersfield. Mrs. Fannie Gibbs prepared the record. I think she lived in Stamford. Mrs. Nellie Kennedy Dayton knows about her. I think she can probably tell whether your father belonged to the Caleb Gibbs line, or the line of Blandford, Mass, which includes the wife of the first Ezra Beard.

The entries in the family Bible will be of great value, and will be reliable as far as they go. What we want is the record of the first family in the line as far back as possible, with dates of births, marriages, deaths, places, occupations of the children. Then the same for the one who brought the line down, and so on down to Jefferson, and then all down to date. All this, or as much of it as it known.

I have some of the Griffin records, but any you can get, and especially about the Blandford Gibbs' descendents, it will be best to get.

Don McPherson and I took such of the Stevens tombstone inscriptions as seemed cf use to us. But we ought to have the whole record of that cemetery, and it would probably be as easy to take all the inscriptions as to try to patch up what we took. If the weather up there is like what we are having here it will not favor work there. Mr. McPherson and I neglected to take along something to eat and drink and nearly perished for the want of it.

It may be that the TIMES notice was taking the Post Office address instead of the town as the place where your father was born. That has happened in the case of whose who lived in Jefferson and used the Harpersfield Post Office.

This item is a Gregory list:

Julia E. Maynard married S.M. Van Loan. Stepson Frank Van Loan married Ada Silvernail. Stepdaughter Ruth Van Loan married Fred Cornell.

If you have not been on Potter Hill, I hope you can go there. The road over from the Taylor schoolhouse is passable, but not smooth. I was over it this summer.

With thanks for your attention, Eugene Bouton

Mrs. Clarence D. Silvernail 410 Valley Road Montclair, New Jersey

Dear Madam:

With others I have been helping to prepare a history of the town of Jefferson, New York where John Wesley Gibbs was a prominent citizen. We have a fairly full account of the descendents of the Caleb Gibbs branch of the family in which Major George Gibbs and his son Judge Ransom Gibbs of Sioux Falls belong.

I do not find your father's name in that list and it may be that he belonged in the branch of the family which came to Jefferson from Blandford, to which the wife of Ezra Beard belonged.

I hesitate to ask your attention to this matter now, but when you find it convenient to let me know your father's ancestry I shall appreciate the favor and it will help to make our records more complete.

We try to give dates of birth, marriages, and deaths, with full names, residences, etc.

Respectfully,

Eugene Bouton

Dear Mrs. Silvernail:

I am sorry on my own account as well as on yours that you have not been able to hear from me. The more active of our two-family household spends its summers at Lake Hopatcong. Mrs. Bouton and I do our best to go through the formalities, but not very successfully. I spend the day in the office of the Tax Board in Newark and after 7 or 8 in the evening am the only wakeful inhabitant. I do not hear well enough to use the telephone, and so pay no attention to it. Likewise am not likely to notice any ordinary ring at the bell. Mrs. Bouton is quite agile at the telephone when she is on duty. But she goes to sleep early and rises early in the morning. She also has an outdoor lean-to beside the garage, from which she might hear the telephone and might not.

I expect to go up to the Lake for Labor Day, and may start tomorrow after office

As soon as schools open the Lake Dwellers expect to return, and it will then be possible to call the attention of the household most of the time. I shall then be glad to receive a visit or make one if our family auto is not in South Jersey or Detroit, or some other place.

I take it that you have found where your father came in on the Gibbs list in Harpersfield. Possibly it may be in the record which I copied from that made by Mrs. Gibbs. I shall be glad to have it.

Dr. H.A. Gibbs has given much attention to the family genealogy. His home is in the Alston District of Boston. I am writing this in Newark, but my memory is that his address is 12 Gardner St.

He belongs to the branch of the Gibbs family to which Mary Gibbs who married the first Ezra Beard, of Jefferson, belonged. He has been very active in stirring uninterest in the town of Blandford, Mass. and especially the members of the Gibbs family who came from there to Harpersfield.

The other branch of the Gibbses descend from Caleb Gibbs, who came to Harpersfield from Litchfield, Conn. That is the branch to which Mrs. Fannie Gibbs gives attention, and to which I suppose you belong. Caleb Gibbs was a Revolutionary soldier.

It will be a real service to all concerned, if you can complete the record of the Stevens Cemetery. As you use the typewriter, I hope you can make three copies of the record, by manifold, and let me have one.

I shall be glad to see you as soon as we can arrange.

Sincerely yours,

Eugene Bouton

Mrs. Stella Gibbs Silvernail 410 Valley Road Upper Montclair, New Jersey

Dear Mrs. Silvernail:

I can assure you that my delay in thanking you for the fine list of inscriptions in the Stevens Cemetery has not been lack of appreciation of the fine job done and your kindness in giving me the benefit of your labors. I knew when I received the papers that I ought to have replied at once. But my sense of the favor has been increasing all the time more and more when my delay has haunted me. Too many things to do is all the excuse I have.

And of course I am glad to have the additional record in the Caleb Gibbs family, and will know what to do if there is any question about its relation to the other inscriptions.

In one way it may be that my delay has been fortunate. The inscription on the tombstone of Lyman Carrington in the small burial place under the eaves of Potter Hill has long disturbed me. I have supposed that Lyman was a brother of my father's mother, Hannah Carrington. Her brother, Miles Carrington, is buried in the old Jefferson Cemetery and was born in 1780. My grandmother, buried in Meredith was born August 2, 1777. Hector Carrington in the Stevens Cemetery was born in 1795. It seemed natural for Lyman to have been born February 28, 1799. But how a man who lived to be 103 could have escaped some newspaper mention in nearby Stamford was a puzzle. Mrs. McPherson finally found a notice of the death of Lyman in 1882, age 71 years. I think there was a Lyman born in 1779 and that in preparing the inscription the date of birth of the earlier Lyman was used.

There is another peculiarity in the case of Jerry D. Beard. He and his wife came from Blandford, Mass. The Town Clerk of Blandford has sent me the Biard-Beard record there.

"James Baird was the son of Joseph and Rachel (McConoughey) Baird, born Dec. 6, 1788.

Jerie Baird to Polly Stewart, both of Bland. Int. Dec. 31, 1809; Jerie Baird to Polly Stewart Feb. 1, 1810 by Reb. John Keep. Jerry Baird died Nov. 20, 1830, age 41.

1830-11-20 1788-12- 6 41

I do not feel as certain about tombstone inscriptions as I have been.

Sincerely yours,

Eugene Bouton

P.S. All I have found out about the origin of Hannah Carrington is that her brother, Miles married Rachel Hotchkiss at Morris, Conn. in 1804.

410 Valley Road Upper Montclair, N.J. May 17, 1941

Mr. Eugene Bouton 53 Warren Street Bloomfield, N.J.

Dear Mr. Bouton:

It is regrettable that we have been so slow in returning your sheets to which has been added the data on our branch of the family.

It was not until we went to Stamford for Election Day that we were able to finish copying the stones at the Stevens Cemetery, and has been quite a job to arrange the names alphabetically, but may be of some interest.

Mrs. Fannie Gibbs let me take and copy her records on that same trip. We also went up to the small cemetery near Potter Hill and took off the small number of stones there. There was also a small family plot on the Nichols farm on the road from Jefferson to North Harpersfield, which may be of interest to you.

We are sorry that we have been so slow, but it has been difficult to find the time to finish the job.

Cordially yours,

Stella Gibbs Silvernail (Mrs. C.D.Silvernail)

COPY of a letter to Stella Gibbs Silvernail

Fox Lake, Wisconsin October 3, 1940

Dear Cousin Stella:

While at work in my kitchen after supper tonight, Edwin came to me with a letter and said "Here is a letter that you can answer much better than I can, and I think you will love to do it," and handed me your letter.

Edwin, of course, has always had to think of providing the 'bread and butter' for the family and I had more of a chance to listen to the family history, etc. while with his mother, a very fine woman, and her relatives who visited here once in a while.

The Gibbs Family Bible, your Great-Grandfather's Bible, is at the Von Berg home in Mosinee, Wisconsin. Frances had that. We have Grandmother Graves' Bible, but the record was taken out of that by Grandmother Graves and taken to some relative in Indians or Illinois. I understand that Grandfather was very much put out about it, and I'm sorry that it isn't here. I think the information you want can be had through the Von Berg's and ourselves.

Grandfather Gibbs was married twice. He had three children and Edwin's father was only a baby when the first wife, Eliza Graves died. The children were scattered among relatives and made Grandfather feel bad, so he married a sister of his first wife before she had been dead a year, just to have his family together again.

Edwin came in possession of two letters in 1893. One was written by Judge Cyrenus Gibbs in 1829, I think (he kept a select school) and the other was written by his wife, Sally (I think) Hubbard Gibbs in 1825. (Note inserted by C.D. Silvernail, - Abigail Hubbard is right.)

I have a copy of a letter written about 1862 or 3 by Sarah Gibbs Dayton, sister of B.F. Gibbs, Sr. and your Great-Aunt.

Edwin's mother's name was Charlotte Camilla Packard. Her mother was Sophrena Hubbard Packard.

Judge Cyrenus Gibbs' wife was Sally Hubbard and her brother was Sophrena Hubbard Packard's father. Now figure it out, Edwin's father's father and his mother's mother were cousins, so his father and mother were second cousins. Am I right? Edwin was an only child. Your questions require more study and looking up, so I'll have to take a little more time for that.

Your name is Silvernail. Where have I heard that name before? I'm sure Edwin's mother used to mention some one by that same name.

I wish your father might have come back to the old home. Walter Von Berg lost his wife about a month ago. His daughter is married and Walt must find it pretty lonesome. Walter and Elizabeth are Frances and Adam Von Berg's children.

Edwin had a letter from your Aunt Mattie and I've always been sorry that he has to work so hard or been so rushed that he couldn't take time to write.

This, I think, will be all for now, but I'll do my best to get your questions answered. I was glad you wrote and hope to hear from you again some time.

Yours sincerely,

Nattie L. Gibbs

Fox Lake, Wisconsin October 6, 1940

Dear Cousin:

Your letter came a couple of days ago, and I have turned it over to the expert of the family when it comes to fixing up the family tree. Guess I am pretty dumb at that. If one asked me about the relationship of the cattle, think I could tell a lot about them, but when it comes to the family tree it always did give me a headache. It is a hobby with my wife, so I am giving her the pleasure of fixing up the tree, and I will scribble something along another line. However you asked some questions that I do not think she has answered.

Cannot tell where my Gran father Benjamin F. Gibbs died, but will look it up sometime. He is buried in a country cemetery 4 miles east of Fox Lake and about one mile from his farm in Township of Trenton, Dodge County. He died at his farm home. The above information also applies to his second wife, Caroline. They both died from strokes. She lived for many years after her stroke, but could not talk, and it was pathetic.

As you say, Uncle David and Aunt Aurelia had no children of their own, but adopted two, both of which died before they were 20. It was a dreadful blow to them. Uncle David was living at Adrian, Michigan when he died. Aunt Aurelia lived for a time after his death, but she had lost her mind at the time of Uncle's death, and it was a blessing when she was called.

I do not remember ever seeing Uncle Alonzo. He lived neighbor to my father and grandfather in Trenton Township, but moved to Iowa, I think about the time I was born. Do not know about his wife, but knew they had children, but not how many.

Adam Von Berg, Frances' husband, worked for Grandfather Gibbs for many years and was a very faithful helper. He staid on the farm after he married Frances, and worked it, and took wonderful care of Grandfather and Grandmother in their sickness. It was only a mile from where I was born and lived 'til 20 years ago when we sold that farm and bought one close to Fox Lake Village, a town of 1000.

Adam and Frances had two children, Walter and Elizabeth. After finishing High School, Walter got a job in the bank and was there many years. When he had mastered the business, Adam sold his farm and he and Walter opened a new bank at Mosinee, Wisconsin, a town a little over 100 miles north of us. They prospered 'til the bank depression got them. Frances died about 10 years ago, and Adam 2 years ago last January. Walter now has an important Government job and Elizabeth manages an Insurance Office, and does it successfully. We often visit back and forth. Elizabeth never married. My father, Nathaniel S. Gibbs was born in Harpersfield (I think) October 7, 1833. He died in Trenton and is buried in Fox Lake Cemetery. He died January 28, 1907. My mother, Camilla Packard, was born June 7, 1832 at Harpersfield (I think). Died in Trenton April 15, 1915, and is buried at Fox Lake.

Edwin David Gibbs born June 30, 1872 in Trenton. Nettie Lemnon Gibbs born August 20, 1870 in Trenton. We have 3 children - Russell Lemnon Gibbs, born April 15, 1909.

My cousin, Elizabeth Gibbs, daughter of my uncle, Benjamin F. Gibbs, Jr., married Orrin Palmer of Adrian, Michigan. He died a few years ago. I visited Cousin Libbie several times when they lived in Michigan. Since his death she has made her home with one of her sons and also other relatives. Have tried to keep in touch with her, especially at Christmas time. Wrote to her last Christmas, but got no reply. If you can tell me about her would be glad to know. Have often heard Libbie talk about the Silvernails. Never gave it any thought as to how she was related.

I took Mother to New York on a visit a few years before she passed on, and got acquainted with many uncles, aunts and cousins, but most of them have now died, and there is now only one cousin I am in touch with. These cousins were on my Mother's side.

I think my better half rather overestimates my being busy. Come and make Wisconsin a visit and we will have a big talk.

Hope you can tell me about Cousin Libbie Palmer. Hate to lose track of all my relatives.

Well, guess you will get filled up with our two letters.

Sincerely yours,

Edwin Gibbs

P.S. would like to know more about yourself.

COPY of a letter to Stella Gibbs Silvernail from Elizabeth Gibbs Palmer.

125 N. Hutchins St. Lodi, California October 4, 1940

Dear Stella:

Your letter followed me here. I was in Salinas less than a week. Spent two days in Wichita with M. & M. where a letter reached me from Mary, saying her mother was much worse - so I packed in a hurry, coming here by train in less than 48 hours. Found Beth here, and Hattie in bad shape with her heart. Philip met me in Sacrament and took me home with him for one of Pauline's famous dinners, - then they brought me here. Don't know what to say about the situation. It is fatty degeneration of the heart and cannot be cured, and she looks very badly.

I am due to be with Julia Danay October 9, - but unless Hattie is better will not go. Beth is a host in herself, but she has left her family and can't stay indefinitely. I've never been here in the fall before. It is beautiful, and the grapes are wonderful. The clan gathers here, but not too many at one time.

I didn't bring any of the "family papers" with me, so can't give you much information about the Gibbs line. The Daytons of Mason City were first cousins; Alan F. Gibbs is a first cousin. Mrs. Pritchard of Mason City was a first cousin, She was a sister of Cyrenus and Norman Dayton.

Orren's father, Martin Rulon Palmer, Orren's mother, Emmeline Baker Palmer Horace Dale, Jr. was born in Cincinnati, Ohio. Donald Gibbs was born in Detroit, Michigan. Martin and Mary were married December 3, 1932. I'll have to write Ada about her father and mother. We all wanted Lowell named B.F. Gibbs III. I have Mother's picture framed in an ordinary frame. Yes, I'd like it. I keep it in Salina and don't take it back and forth because Mary is very fond of antiques and Ada doesn't care for same. If you wish I can have Ada send you the genealogy, although there is no rush, I guess. It seems to be something one gets enthusiastic about. (Remainder of letter missing.)

Dr. H.A. Gibbs 12 Gardner St. Boston, Mass.

Dear Sir:

Since my father's death last summer I have become interested in the Gibbs Genealogy and was told that if I could get in touch with you, you might be interested in my particular branch.

We are in the direct Giles line and my Great-great-grandfather was Benjamin Franklin Gibbs, Sr., born November 4, 1800.

I shall be glad to send you such information as I have if you are interested.

Yours very truly,

Stella Gibbs Silvernail

My dear Mrs. Gibbs:

My husband is an Insurance man, and in looking through the Nov. 1940 issue of "Life Association News", found staring at him from its print, the name I bore when he met me. I acquired the name at birth, and you married the "Gibbs" part.

I wonder if you would be so kind as to tell me whatever you know of your husband's family - who his parents were, and even the grandparents, if you know, If you do not, can you tell me if there is anyone with whom I can get in touch, who could tell me?

Since my father's death last summer I have gotten involved in the family genealogy and feel moved to inquire of any Gibbs who comes to my attention, from what line he springs.

I shall deeply appreciate any help you can give me.

Very sincerely,

Stella Gibbs Silvernail

COPY of excerpt from letter from Hattie E. Gibbs Rathbun to Stella Gibbs Silvernail.

Excerpt from letter of July 31, 1940 -

"If you could get hold of my Grandfather Gibbs' Bible it would tell a lot. I'll tell you Uncle Nate's boy, Edwin Gibbs, that lives in Fox Lake, Wisconsin, might have that Bible. His full name is Edwin David Gibbs. Don't think you'd need a street address. My Grandfather, Benjamin Franklin Gibbs married first, Eliza Graves. She died, then he married his first wife's sister, Caroline Graves. I saw quite a lot of my Great-Grandmother Graves and I knew her husband was named Orange Graves, and one of his sons was named "Orange", too. My Great-Grandmother saved me from drowning when I was three years old. The name John Wesley Gibbs is familiar. Libbie may know more about it."

Excerpts from letter from E.S. Frisbee, 236 Washington Ave., Albany, N.Y. in 1897 to Mrs. Fannie Gibbs:

"Benjamin Gaylord is the 4th generation of descent from William Gaylord of Dorchester, Mass. Married in 1729 Jerusha Frisbee, daughter of Benjamin Frisbee of Brandford, Connecticut. The ancestor of the Roxbury, Delaware Co. branch of the Frisbees and grandson of Benjamin Frisbee and Jerusha Gaylord was Joel Gaylord, born in 1766, died in 1849. From Jay Gould's History, Judge Gideon Frisbee died in 1828, age 71. Came to this country in 1788. It was County of Montgomery, afterwards County of Otsego, and in 1797 the County of Delaware. He settled on the same farm where he died."

Excerpt of letter from Mattie Gibbs Tallman to Stella Gibbs Silvernail, Nov. 22, 1940.

"Zack's name is just 'Zack'. He had quite a time over that one time when he got out a patent. His mother's name was Cornelia Jermain Lovett and his father's name was Jacob DeWitt Tallman."

Upper Montclair, N.J. October 1, 1940

Dear Ruth:

I am sure that I do not owe you a letter. I have wondered if you got the papers I sent when Dad died and if you didn't get them, did you know about it?

A long time ago I had some pictures of Grandmother Gibbs enlarged and colored. They are lovely old fashioned ones, and you may not be interested at all, but I have one copy which somehow didn't get colored. Would you like it? I have been saving it for you if you would.

Since Dad died I have become involved in the Gibbs Genealogy. I won't got into detail now - you may not be interested at all - except to tell you that our first known ancestor came to this country from Devonshire, England in 1629 on the 'Abigail'. We have the line pretty complete (are working on the unknown data) and as I told Dale in a letter I wrote him today, I hope to see that at least all of my generation get a copy when I have run to earth all the facts I can. I would like some information from you. Will you find out from your Mother the full name of HER father and the full maiden name of HER mother? Are my dates right that she and Uncle 'Gene were married in Marshalltown, Ia. on September 5, 1885? John's full name is John Chapin Wiley? And he was born April 20, 1897? Full name of HIS father? Full maiden name of HIS mother? Was Dale born in Mason City? I forget to ask him. I know you were.

I shall appreciate the information. I am almost caught up on the later generations, but there are a few gaps in the earlier lines. They are all people to be proud of and so far haven't unearthed any unpleasant facts.

Best regards to John.

Lovingly, Stella

Copy of letter from Stella Gibbs Silvernail to Ruth M. Gibbs Wiley at Christmas time 1940.

Upper Montclair, N.J. Tuesday

Dear Ruth:

Best wishes for a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. I am not sending any cards this year.

Thanks for the family data. I had hoped to get the records in shape to send on before this, but I am one of the worst procrastinators on earth and anyhow the record is not entirely complete. New names and dates keep bobbing up. As I wrote Lorraine and Dale, I guess I will, for the present, copy the direct line down for each interested member of the clan and hope to get a full record done some day. The name of the first known ancestor was Giles.

I am enclosing the picture I promised of Grandmother Gibbs. I am sorry it isn't colored as the others were, but I didn't do it myself and can not get it done now. She had blue eyes, you know, her hair brown. We had the dress plum color. The cheeks and lips tinted very slightly. You would be surprised to see what it does to the print. I hope you can have it done and also have it framed. The one I have is the one I had done to send Dad before Helen died. I had never had one for myself even. This one I have promised to Helen's older daughter when I am through with it.

This isn't much of a letter. I am trying to get all my Calif. letters written and in the mail and I wanted you to have the picture instead of the Christmas card.

If you get impatient about the family stuff jog me along. I may need some prodding to get it done. Clarence is much better than I about such detailed work as that involves.

Love and best wishes, Stella

P.S. How is Aunt Mame? I always remember stopping at her house and being fed hard boiled eggs pickled in beet juice!

Copy of letter from Mattie Gibbs Tallman to half-sister, Ruth M. Gibbs Wiley

2422 Delmer St. Cakland, Calif. Nov. 29, 1945

My dear sister Ruth:

I do not know what you think of me for not writing you before now, to thank you for your good letter and the lovely pictures of yourself, that I have recently received. But I have not been well all Fall, so have not done anything that I haven't been compelled to do, and the family has had to help themselves. The abrupt ending of the war left me in a state of nervous exhaustion. I managed to keep going while the war was on, but when it ceased I felt as though I had been left dangling in midair, with no place to land! If I had been doing some war work outside the home I guess I would have been better off, but I didn't, as my time was pretty well taken up writing to the boys - to Irving who was in South America and to Francis who is in Saudi Arabia. He has been there for more than a year now, is with the Arabian American Oil Co., has charge of their training program, as 95% of the labor has to be done by natives. He likes it there very much. Of course his work is mostly inside and they have air-conditioning in all their buildings. He writes very interesting letters and we hear from him about every ten days.

Irving is out of the Navy, but Harry is still in the Army and will not be out before March. He is a flight clerk and takes trips to the islands of the South Pacific. One trip took him to Tokyo and he has been to the Philippines twice.

Our cousin (yours and Dale's and mine) who was a prisoner of war in Japan for three and a half years, is back home now, and has been with us for several days. He is quite a bit stouter and looks better than when he went away. I thought he would DESPISE the Japs, but he doesn't. I asked him if there was such a thing as a GOOD Jap and he said, "Oh, yes, there are lots of Christian Japs." He mostly calls them 'Nips'. He was taken prisoner when Corregidor fell. He is Radio Man First Class. His name is Roy Eugene Brown. He has been in the Navy 16 years, so of course will stay in. He is 35 years old. He has 90 days more of liberty before he has to go back on duty. He left here for Adriatic duty several years ago. His little girl was only a year old when he went away and now she is eight. She lives with her mother's sister up in the Yosemite Valley. Her mother passed on when she was just a few days old. Roy has never married again.

I am sure you must be very proud of your war work record, and certainly the part that women took, helped more than anyone can ever realize. It will soon be time to start my dinner, so will have to bring this to a close. Many thanks again for the lovely pictures of yourself and write when you can and I will TRY to be more prompt in answering next time.

· With lots of love to you both from sister,

Mattie

Copy of letter, Nov. 1966, from Irving L. Tallman, son of Mattie Gibbs Tallman and Zack DeSitt Tallman.

"My father held three patents: 1. A gas operated incubator. 2. A mail box with flag. This patent infringed upon and my father couldn't fight it because of the cos of court fees, etc. 3. A gasoline storage tank by-pass valve. A very large oil company waited until the patent ran out and then proceeded to use the valve without the necessity of paying any royalties. The mail box and valve are still being widel used. My father had an extremely inventive mind and would have gone far if he had had financial backing."

Excerpt from letter from Horace Dale Palmer, Sr., March 16, 1967, to Ruth M. Gibbs Wiley.

"My father, Orren Leander Palmer, was born January 11, 1858 at Otsego, Ohio, son of Martin Richardson Palmer and Emmeline Buker Palmer. My grandmother's father, Israel Hilton Buker fought in the Revolution, was on General Washington's bodyguard, and was present at the execution of Major Andre. Until grandmother died in 1920, much was made of the fact that she was a 'real daughter' of the Revolution."

Copy of letter from Ethel Silvernail Chrisp-to Ruth Gibbs Wiley

44 Euclid Ave. Albany, N.Y. Feb. 15, 1967

My dear cousin Ruth:

Your very interesting letter and "introduction" came today. I will tell you the few things I know and will send everything on to my brother, Frank Gibbs Silvernail, who knows a great many more things about Clarence than I do. He and Clarence spent the years of the Depression in the two libraries of New York looking up genealogy. Clarence specialized on the Gibbs and Silvernails, and Frank took the family back 72 lines, each time to the first arrival in this country.

Yes, Clarence graduated from the University of Rochester in 1903. Frank graduated from the University of Rochester in 1903. Frank graduated there in 1917. If this date is wrong, Frank will correct me.

Mother took Egbert and me (age 6) to visit Aunt Susan Olivia Gibbs in 1893 and we stopped in Chicago to see the World's Fair. (I sat on the lap of 'Rain-in-the-Face.') I also remember seeing glass made, and the exhibition of glass there. Eith there or in Mason City I met Mrs. Carry Lane Chapman Catt several times who had been a pupil of Mother's when Mother taught out there.

Libbie was there, too, that summer and did yeoman duty nursing my painful hysterics when I was stung three times by bees.

I think of all Libbie's brothers, your father, Eugene intrigued me most. My mother named my brother Egbert Eugene Silvernail.

Speaking of the pretty girl with the fascinating hat in 1908-9 in Nebraska, I was in Rochester, N.Y. and on Sept. 30, 1908 was married to Hugh Chrisp. That was a long time ago. We are both very much alive and Hugh is going almost every day to his architectural office.

I am sending you under separate cover a mimeographed copy of Mother's "Dales Genealogy" which I loaned Burr Dales, expecting him to give Mother credit for it, bu he changed it.

Yes, I'd like a Gibbs Genealogy when it is finished.

Yours cordially, Ethel Silvernail Chrisp

Excerpts from Letter, March 16, 1967, from Ethel Silvernail Chrisp to Ruth M. Gibbs Wiley

"No, I never knew Hattie, or her family, except from hear-say. Nor did I know your father who was off and away on my only visit in Iowa. In other words, I knew only Ben, Stella's father, and Libbie who visited Mother in Rochester fairly often, and I went with Mother to visit Libbie in Detroit. She was a dear."

"In the parlance of genealogists you and I are 'lst cousins-once-removed,' not second cousins as you have stated. Our children are second cousins, and one of their children 2nd cousins-once-removed, and on and on like that."

"Of course you know that Mother and your Grandmother Susan Olivia (Dales) Gibbs were born in Harpersfield in the Catskill Mountains."

"Mother's Aunt Lucy Lockwood Boggs wanted Mother to have her little farmhouse when her step-children Mima and Marietta Boggs were through with it. That is what happened in 1917. Mother died in 1926 and I was left in charge. Clarence and Stella were there more than I for several years. They loved it, too. Stella and I went to see a cousin of hers, Sarah Gibbs Van Deusen (Mrs. Stephen Van Deusen) over in Harpersfield (four miles from Stamford, where the little farm house is.) She, and her husband, Stephen have both died (and I cannot tell you how she is related to you) but thereby hangs a tale. Mother and Dad had a large stained-glass window placed in the Harpersfield Methodist Church in memory of her parents, Alexander Dales and his wife, Martha Hilton (the only Mother that Mother ever knew since her own Mother died when she was two years old.) To make a long story short, Stephen Van Deusen left that little church many thousands of dollars when he died, so that it is independent of any fund-raising to carry on. Lucky, lucky, as there are only eight left in the Congregation."

"If you can possibly get, in your library, a copy of the BURNHANS GENEALOGY, pray do. Clarence always considered it the finest genealogy he had ever seen. I copied it in the Dales Genealogy for the index and throughout. I hope you saw the significance.

Copy of letter from Frank Gibbs Silvernail to Ruth M Gibbs Wiley.

Frank G. Silvernail 110 Adams Street Bennington, Vermont 05201 February 19, 1967

My dear first-cousin-once-removed Ruth:

My sister Ethel has just sent me your letter of February 6 and the draft of your Introduction to the Gibbs Genealogy in the hope that I could answer your questions about Clarence more fully than she could. So I'll try to clear up a couple of points, at least.

Clarence graduated from the University of Rochester with a B.A. degree in 1902, not the 1903 that Ethel thought. I know this date very well, not only because he had "O2" cut out of gold paper and pasted on his closet door, but because in 1927 he drove me up to Rochester for his 25th and my 10th reunion, since I graduated from the U of R in 1917.

His first major job was in the New York office of the Santa Fe railroad, where he became Chief Clerk of the freight department doing all the things that freight agents do.

When the war broke out he wanted to get into the Service, but his crippled feet prevented it. So he prevailed on the YMCA to send him to Paris in charge of all their freight shipments to the Y canteens in Europe. This involved his setting up warehouse facilities in all the French ports, in charge of old time railroad freight experts. This I knew, because in 1919, when my infantry outfit was being sent home from France for demobilization, he came down to Bordeau, introduced me to his ware-house man with an injunction to give me any help I might want, (I can't recall his name at all) and for the entire week that I was waiting for sailing orders, I had VIP treatment.

I think Clarence must have drifted from the Santa Fe to selling for Provident Mutual not too long before the war broke out, but can't give you any dates because he was in New York, and I was busy as a Senior in College. I do know that at one time he was listed as one of the top ten Insurance Salesmen in the New York market.

You will want to boil this down, I'm sure.

I don't think Clarence did any research in the Chicago Library. He spent most of his time in the New York Historical and Genealogical Library on East 58th St., New York, and a certain amount of time in the Public Library at 42nd Street and 5th Avenue.

And I don't know the date on which he started work on the Gibbs family, or how much he dug up, because I was too absorbed in searching out my wife Ruth's and my own ancestral lines, fanning upwards instead of downwards as most genealogical books do. Sorry!

I'm returning your carbon copy of the Introduction to the Gibbs Genealogy. It looks good to me.

Ethel writes that she's sending you a copy of the Dales Genealogy that may possibly add some dates for you.

Sincerely,

Your unknown cousin, Frank

Excerpts from letter, June 27, 1967, from Nora Rathbun to Ruth M. Gibbs Wiley.

"Roy and Dennis left for Southern California this week to visit friends here and ther all the way down to San Diego. He has one Aunt in Morro Bay and one in Van Nuys, also a friend or two farther down that were with him in the prison camp in Japan. Roor Roy suffered hell for 42 months there. His health has never been good cince. We are hoping this trip will do them good. We all enjoyed his daughter Wanda, and her family. They drove out from Kansas City, Kansas. Were here for 2 days and with her Dad 4 days. Then they went to Hemet to see Alma, who raised Wanda. She is her Mother's sister. When Roy was sent to the Philippines Wanda was 13 months old. He didn't see her again until she was seven. He was Chief Radio man stationed at Cavite Naval Base. Had been there 2½ years, I think, and was getting ready to come back to the U.S. when war broke out. They were all taken over to Corregidor Island. Cavite was blown up by the Navy first. He was one of the last men to send out message before those _____ Japs took over." (Note: Nora is Roy's Mother. R.M.G.W.)

To my sons Horace Gibbs and Benjamin A.Gibbs, and my daughters Hattie Gibbs Rathbun and Elizabeth Gibbs Palmer, their heirs and assigns forever, I give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, of whatever name or nature it may be, share and share alike.

Provided, however, that in case my son Horace Gibbs should not survive me, then in that case one-third of the share devised to him I give, devise and bequeath to his widow, if living, and if she be not living then the same shall be given to his adopted son, and the balance of his share to the other three children hereinbefore mentioned.

Provided further, that in case that neither the widow of my son Horace or his adopted son survive me, then the entire one-fourth interest that he would take if living, I give, devise and bequeath to the other three children hereinbefore named.

Provided further, that in case I shall hold any note or written obligation against any of my children at the time of my decease, whether the same shall be barred by the statutes of limitations or not, I direct that all unpaid interest on such obligation shall be cancelled, and the principal sum shall apply upon the distributive share of said children, and the note turned over to them as so much cash.

VII

I hereby expressly revoke all former Wills by me heretofore made.

VIII

I do hereby appoint my son-in-law Orren L.Palmer of Adrian, Michigan, as Executor of this my last Will and Testament,
